

FREEDOM ENGLISH ACADEMY

Role play scenarios for active listening

1. Two friends discussing eating habits – vegetarian and non- vegetarians.
2. A father and a son discussing career choices where they both have different points of view.
3. A student listening to a teacher share the importance of the English language and then answering questions.
4. A friend sharing a moment of sorrow with another friend.
5. A customer complaining about how he did not get the correct grade of rice that was delivered to him by the shopkeeper.
6. A brainstorming session between two facilitators on how to improve the number of students at a center.